El Latino International Theater Festival of New York, Inc. (LITF/NY) anunció que el 5º Aniversario de TeatroStageFest se llevará a cabo del 4 al 18 de Junio del 2011. El Festival presentará aclamados espectáculos locales e internacionales de Teatro, Danza, Música y Títeres, eventos familiares, representaciones gratis y un panel de discusión sobre la primera Alianza Internacional de Intercambio Cultural entre LITF/NY y SESC, la red de centros culturales más grande en Latinoamérica, con base en Brasil. Esta asociación permitirá que tres producciones neoyorquinas de Teatro, Música y Danza que formarán parte de TeatroStageFest 2011, se presenten en São Paulo al final de este verano.

En una muestra de apoyo hacia el principal festival de Teatro de Nueva York, la actriz Lauren Vélez (Oz, Law and Order, New York Undercover, Ugly Betty) se tomará una pausa de su rol protagónico en la serie televisiva Dexter para celebrar la apertura de TeatroStageFest 2011 con su participación en la obra teatral "Me Lllaman La Lupe", un retrato del tesoro nacional de Cuba, Victoria Guadalupe Yoli, conocida como "La Lupe". Este show unipersonal escrito para la actriz por Luis Caballero y James Manos, Jr., y dirigido por Verónica Caicedo, introducirá a la audiencia a la extraordinaria vida de esta artista que fue aclamada en Nueva York como la "Reina del Soul Latino". El espectáculo se presentará el 4 de Junio en asociación con Hostos Center for the Arts and Culture en El Bronx, cerca de donde vivió este ícono musical llamado La Lupe.

"Estamos orgullosos de abrir el quinto aniversario de TeatroStageFest con el excepcional talento de Lauren Vélez. Su interpretación de la extraordinaria La Lupe marca el lanzamiento de un festival asombroso que una vez más presentará las mejores compañías de Teatro, Música, Danza y Títeres de Nueva York, América Latina, el Caribe y España", anunció

Susana Tubert, Productora Ejecutiva de TeatroStageFest y Co-Fundadora de LITF/NY.

"Durante los últimos cinco años, TeatroStageFest ha sido reconocido como el gran evento que reúne a diversas perspectivas culturales y artísticas en la Ciudad de Nueva York. Como parte de las celebraciones del 2011, TeatroStageFest expandirá el alcance de su programación a Latinoamérica presentando a los artistas Latinos de vanguardia de Nueva York en São Paulo, Brasil".

Al preguntarle a Lauren Vélez sobre la importancia de su participación como actriz en TeatroStageFest, ella respondió: "Es emocionante para mí abrir el festival de este año con Me Lllaman La Lupe, porque en el año 2007 presentamos la primera lectura pública de esta obra en el marco del primer festival. ¡Es como si estuviésemos cerrando un círculo!" Al ser una neoyorkina que creció viendo teatro, Vélez agregó: "Valoro muy especialmente TeatroStageFest porque el festival crea un espacio vital donde audiencias multiculturales tienen la oportunidad de confluír para acceder a la universalidad de nuestras múltiples historias Latinas".

Desde 2007, TeatroStageFest ha presentado cerca de 500 artistas locales e internacionales en 67 producciones para un público de casi 20,000 personas en Manhattan, Queens y el Bronx.

Susana Tubert invita a la creciente audiencia del Festival a suscribirse al boletín del TeatroStageFest en www.teatrostagefest.org y a que nos envíen sus preguntas a info@teatrostagefest.org. Síguenos en Facebook y Twitter para estar al día con noticias e imágenes del evento.

ENRIQUE IGLESIAS
HEATS UP ARENAS WITH MAJOR FALL TOUR
PITBULL AND PRINCE ROYCE AS SPECIAL GUESTS

Enrique Iglesias (pictured in the center) stormed the charts this year with hit songs heard on radio airwaves and in dance clubs across the country. And Iglesias announced today that he will now blaze a trail into U.S. arenas with special guests Pitbull and Prince Royce for the hottest tour of the Fall. Starting September 22 in Boston the tour will travel to nearly 20 cities and culminate in a highly anticipated October 22nd hometown Miami show for Enrique. The show will be produced by Concerts West / AEG Live. Ticket on-sales begin Friday, May 20th. For tickets and more information, please visit www.AEGLive.com.

With his signature vocals, driving pop and dance beats and pure passion, Iglesias will have arena audiences on their feet all night. The show will feature the artist's most recent hits from his chart-topping album Euphoria such as "I Like It" and "Tonight" along with fan favorites from his many platinum-selling albums.

"I'm so excited to go out in the states, and this time with my good friends Pitbull and Prince Royce. It's going to be a great show and we hope to see all of you out there. This tour will be unforgettable!" said Iglesias.

Joining the tour as a special guest is international music sensation Pitbull, who will be playing selections from his new album Planet Pit, out June 21. Known for his electrifying performances, Pit fuses his fierce rhymes, sizzling hooks and swaggering stage presence with the raw energy of a live band to create an atmosphere that brings the crowd to life.

"Being on tour with Enrique Iglesias and Prince Royce proves that unity through music is still a driving force in our community," says Pitbull. "It will be a show full of energy and the fans will have a good time."

Latin music's hottest new artist Prince Royce will also join as a special guest, and brings a Latin flair with his trademark bachata music from his double platinum-selling debut album which earned him two Grammy nominations and four Latin Billboard Awards.

"It is an honor to have been invited by Enrique to be part of this tour alongside him and Pitbull. This is what dreams are made of and I plan to enjoy every moment of it doing what I love most, performing for our fans," said Prince Royce

"Enrique Iglesias is one of the most compelling live entertainers in music today and this package gives his fans that dream night out," says Randy Phillips, President & CEO of AEG Live. "By inviting his 'I Like It' collaborator, Pitbull, a prolific hitmaker, and dynamic newcomer, Prince Royce, Enrique has stacked the deck for both his Anglo pop and Latin fans."

SIMON FULLER ANNOUNCES 'Q'VIVA! THE CHOSEN' WITH MARC ANTHONY JENNIFER LOPEZ AND JAMIE KING

Simon Fuller's XIX Entertainment today announces a new partnership with iconic superstar couple Marc Anthony, Jennifer Lopez, and acclaimed show director, Jamie King.

Q'VIVA! THE CHOSEN is being sponsored by BlackBerry®, the award winning mobile communications brand.

Marc and Jennifer will embark on an epic three month long journey to create the ultimate live show celebrating Latin music, artistry and dance.

They will travel to various regions of the Americas, from remote villages to major cities. Their mission is to assemble a cast of incredible performers of all nationality and create a spectacular live show that will become one of the greatest celebrations of Latin culture that the world has ever seen.

This extraordinary undertaking will be documented in a groundbreaking television series, Q'VIVA! THE CHOSEN, which will capture the drama and intense emotions of the incredible stories and personal journeys that Jennifer and Marc uncover.

Q'VIVA! THE CHOSEN will be filmed in three languages and broadcast simultaneously across 21 countries in North America, Central America and South America. This will be achieved through a collaborative partnership of networks, reaching an audience of many millions of TV viewers. Network partners are to be announced.

Marc Anthony comments: "I am really excited about this new endeavour with Jamie and Jennifer. Throughout my travels around the world I have witnessed and encountered an amazing amount of undiscovered talent. "Q' Viva!" would provide an outlet to a whole new generation that have been waiting to have their voices heard."

Jennifer Lopez comments: ""This is a show for the 21st century with an unprecedented global and local story. The Latin culture is a tapestry that is rich in passion, tradition and artistry. We are going to places where all of this talent lives and wouldn't have otherwise been discovered. This journey for me and Marc is going to be exciting and groundbreaking."

Simon Fuller comments: "Latin music and dance is loved all over the world but there has never been a particular show or live experience that truly celebrates its beauty and splendour. Q'Viva is that show".

Jamie King comments: "I'm thrilled to be working again with Simon Fuller, Jennifer Lopez and Marc Anthony. We all share a love for Latin culture, the realness, the richness and purity of it and its traditional aspects. It's actually completely different to anything you've seen before. This is not about competition, it's about finding great talent, cultivating that talent and sharing it with the world. I can't wait to put this show on a global stage." For further information, please contact: Roger Widynowski, XIX Entertainment 310-461-1788, rogerw@xixentertainment.com

The National Council of La Raza, the largest Latino advocacy group in the nation has named her 'Entertainer of the Year' at the American Latino Media Arts Awards (ALMA) for TV and film. Lopez's production company, Nuyorican, is in development on several film and TV productions that includes a partnership with 20th Century FOX and projects with ABC and TruTV. She founded The Maribel Foundation along with her sister, Lynda, with a mission dedicated to improving the health and wellbeing of women and children and raising the level of medical care available to them. The Foundation is currently working with Children's Hospital Los Angeles on a Telemedicine program that will help underserved communities by providing technology and top-notch doctor resources. The first Telemedicine center opened in San Juan, Puerto Rico in 2010.

About Marc Anthony:

Marc Anthony is a singer, actor, songwriter and philanthropist who is widely recognized as one of the most influential and successful artists today. He has sold over 12 million albums worldwide. The five-time Grammy winner has received gold and platinum certifications from the Recording Industry Association of America (RIAA) in multiple occasions. He has set records by receiving a total of 18 "Lo Nuestro Awards" and numerous "Billboard Latin Music Awards." Other recognitions include: being named by New York Magazine as one of the "Top 10 Most Influential New Yorkers" and receiving the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute in Washington D.C. In 2009, Anthony became a minority owner of the Miami Dolphins.

Marc has also established a highly credible acting résumé and may be seen in Martin Scorsese's "Bringing Out the Dead" (1999); opposite Salma Hayek in the Showtime original film, "In the Time of the Butterflies" (2001); and appears with Denzel Washington and Christopher Walken in director Tony Scott's "Man On Fire" (2004). He also appeared in the 1997 Paul Simon musical, "The Capeman." Marc Anthony starred as the Puerto Rican salsa pioneer Héctor Lavoe, with Jennifer Lopez as Puchi, in the biopic, "El Cantante," directed by Leon Ichaso. May 2010 marked the release of his new production titled "Iconos" (Icons), an all ballad Spanish album produced by Marc Anthony and Julio Reyes, including eight titles of his favorite balladeers.

This summer he will return to the hit TV series "Hawthorne" on TNT.

About Jamie King:

Jamie King is the leading concert director in the world of pop music today. In 2006, Variety named King as one of the most influential "movers and shakers" in the music industry, branding him the "Jerry Bruckheimer of tent-pole concert tours." He is currently directing Rihanna's Loud Tour and Britney Spears' Femme Fatal Tour and well as writing and directing the upcoming Cirque du Soleil / Michael Jackson IMMORTAL World Tour. King recently directed Rihanna's Last Girl On Earth tour, Britney Spears' Circus tour, Celine Dion's Taking Chances tour, and The Return of the Spice Girls reunion tour. For the past 13 years, Jamie King has served as Madonna's creative director, having directed her 2008 Sticky & Sweet world tour, and her 2006 record-breaking Confessions world tour. He also directed and choreographed Madonna's Re-Invention and Drowned World Tours, and directed her hit music video "Sorry." A multiple Emmy Award® and MTV Video Music Award® nominee, and greatly influenced by his early years working for both Prince and Michael Jackson, King has worked with an array of superstars including Mariah Carey, Shakira, George Michael, Elton John, Diana Ross, Jennifer Lopez and even Ellen DeGeneres. In 2005, his strong caché in the pop music world and his athletic dance moves caught the attention of athletic gear powerhouse Nike who tapped him to be their global spokesperson and to create the Nike Rockstar Workout ® (taught in gyms worldwide). Fitness publishing giant Rodale thereafter released his hip-hop inspired dance fitness best selling DVD and book, Rock Your Body®.
